Intro!

- Welcome to Country
- Thank the NEAS Australia
- Honored to share my story.

Pathways to Belonging

Our Role in Building Communities

A Stateless Beginning

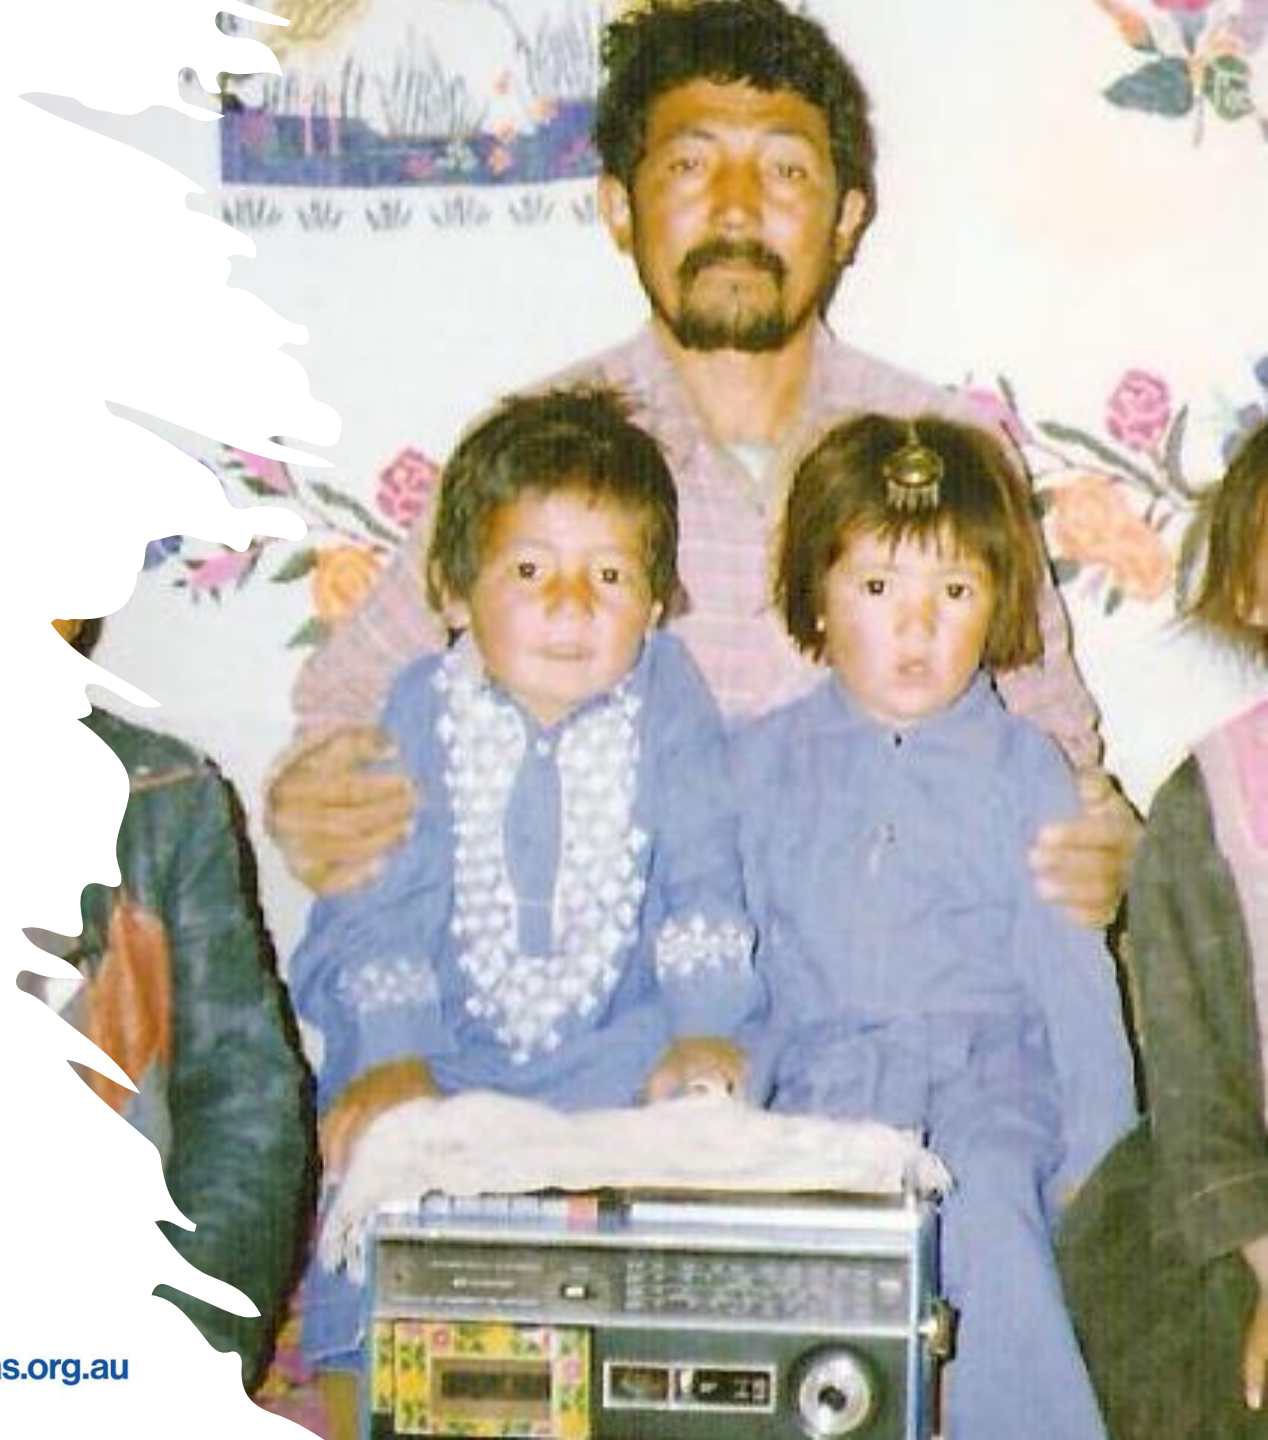

- Born in Afghanistan during civil war
- Grew up in Pakistan, lived without nationality
- Felt invisible and disconnected from community

Surviving, Not Living

- Lived in constant survival mode
- Enrolled in school under fake names
- Parents believed education was our only way out
- Father Passed away, I had to take the lead and responsibilities
- Worked as rug maker

Survival Mode

- Living day-by-day
- No room for dreams—just survival
- Realization: something had to change

Seeking Asylum

- Left everything behind
- Journey full of fear, uncertainty & risk
- Sought identity and belonging

This Risky & Dangerous Journey

- Played by people smuggler
- Crossing borders, escaping police
- Nearly drowned in a river
- Prayed in the storm while stranded at sea
- Escaped across borders, faced near-death moments
- Arrival at Christmas Island marked a new beginning
- Failed multiple attempts
- Boarded a boat to Australia — 70+ hours at sea

Arrival in Australia

- Arrival in Australia
- Detention challengers
- Identity crisis
- Communication challengers
 - Feel lost between 2 cultures
 - Still switches between English and Hazaragi Culture

First ever Australian ID Card

Discovering Belonging

- Finally able to say “I belong”
- Identity interview: “I was stateless, but now I’m here.”
- Discovered that belonging is something you build

Giving back to Community

- Uplift women & marginalised voices
- Use my journey to empower others
- Stories change narratives—and lives

Final Message & Thanks

- No matter where you come from, you can rise
- With hope and resilience, anything is possible
- Grow as little as 1% each day

Thank you for listening
